1. Secret meetings for local Communist Party leaders were held in all communities of the Federal Republic of Slovenia by district leaders between 8 and 13 December 1947. Secret meetings were held at Skofja-Loka on 8 and 13 December 1947, at which the following directives were issued to the community Party leaders:

- a) Every member of the Yugoslav Communist Party will be armed at all times.
- b) Arrangements have to be made for the control by Yugoslav Communist Party members at all times of the movements of individuals who voted at the third poll during the last election; the movements of all individuals who have relatives abroad must also be controlled.
- c) The district and community Party leaders will see that all intellectual Communist Party members register for military training, to which they will be called with less than 24 hours notice.

25X1A Comment: It is believed that the present compulsory military training for Communist Party members is intended to build up a strong cadre of political commissars in case the Yugoslav Army is drawn into conflict.)
